

According to art. 13(1) and (2) of the General Data Protection Regulation of 27 April 2016 (hereinafter: "GDPR"), we would like to inform you that:

1. provision of your personal data is voluntary and there are no negative consequences of not providing data, except for the fact we will not be able to conduct business correspondence or talks, including but not limited to answer your questions sent by the contact form;
2. the controller of your personal data is Sinterit sp. z o.o. having its legal seat in Cracow (30-504), 69/9 Kalwaryjska Street, entered into the Register of Businesses kept by the District Court for Kraków-Śródmieście in Cracow, XI Commercial Division of the National Court Register under number 535095 (hereinafter: the "Company");
3. your personal data will be processed for the purpose of conducting business correspondence or talks, in particular to reply to messages sent via the contact form - pursuant to art. 6(1)(b) GDPR;
4. your personal data may also be processed based on the legitimate interest of the Company which is direct marketing (e.g. sending you, from time to time, commercial information about the Company as well as to offer you products and services), pursuant to art. 6(1)(f) GDPR;
5. the Company uses profiling of personal data to track your activity at the Company's website. It let us customize our website and our offer to your needs and interests. We think that processing of personal data in this way would not involve increased risk for your privacy;
6. the potential recipients of your personal data are persons or entities providing IT, marketing or sale services for the Company;
7. your personal data may be transferred outside European Economic Area, i.a. to the USA (eg. in connection with the use of software of companies operating there). The European Commission has issued decisions confirming an adequate level of protection with regard to, inter alia, Switzerland and, to a limited extent, the United States (entities that joined the self-certification mechanism - the so-called Privacy Shield) and Canada (commercial organizations). In case of transferring data to other entities outside the EEA, the relevant safeguards required by the GDPR must be met. You may obtain a copy of your personal data transferred to a third country by contacting the Company, for example by e-mail to: data@sinterit.com;
8. your personal data will be processed until we conduct business correspondence or talks and after this we will only store your data until the potential claims related to the prior processing are time-barred; we can also process your data in case this is required by applicable law or is permitted based on our legitimate interest;
9. in case we process your data based on our legitimate interest, we will process them until you object to the processing and after this we will only store your data until the potential claims related to the prior processing are time-barred;
10. you have the right to request from the Company access to and rectification or erasure of your personal data or restriction of processing concerning your personal data and to object to processing as well as you have the right to data portability;
11. you have the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Office for Personal Data Protection or other authority that is competent according to the applicable laws.
